

Hints

This is the first level of the game, but even so, it does tend to be challenging for reckless players. Early on you will find feed to be of short supply. The goats can only attack you up close so you may wish to switch to hand feeding until you encounter sheep or when your feed supply is more adequate.

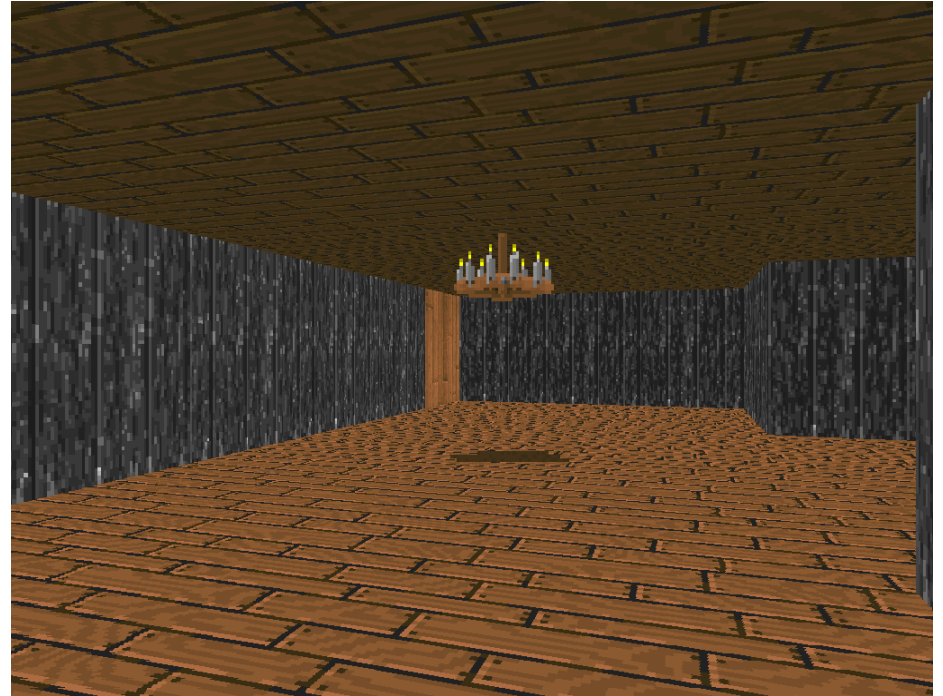

From the start, if you take the right path and then the left door, you can quickly find the first secret containing the large feeder. This can be of great help, but be mindful of the amount of feed being used. Getting the quiz question correct will definitely alleviate the issue.
